

“I Always Feel Like Somebody’s Watching Me: Positive Paranoia in Light of Target’s Privacy Fiasco”

Featuring Tatiana Perry, Tonkon Torp LLP

Winter Networking Event
Thursday, February 13, 2014

5:00—7:30 p.m.

Expand Your Network with Oregon Women Lawyers,
the Oregon Bankers Association, and the Oregon Society of CPAs

Hotel Monaco, 506 SW Washington St., Portland. No Cost. No RSVP necessary.

Ms. Perry will discuss critical information surrounding privacy and security issues of concern to lawyers, bankers, and CPAs. You may have your client's best interests in mind, but many in the world do not. Come learn strategies for protecting your clients as well as yourself.

Heavy hors d'oeuvres, and no-host bar. Bring your business cards and a colleague or friend for this intra-professional networking event, and learn about up-to-the-minute privacy updates. Men are welcome at OWLS events.

For information, contact Diane at OWLS | diane@oregonwomenlawyers.org

Sponsored by

