

Mary Leonard Law Society and Willamette University College of Law present:

Combating Human Trafficking

Thursday, March 20 at 12:00 p.m.

Ford Hall, Willamette University

This is a free event.

---

Join the Mary Leonard Law Society and Willamette University College of Law for a panel discussion on current efforts to combat human trafficking in the Pacific Northwest. Panelists include Hannah Horsley, Assistant United States Attorney, Shannon Meyer, FBI Victim Specialist, Joel Shapiro of Shared Hope International, Tanith Rogers of the FBI Child Exploitation Task Force, Chanpone Sinlapasai of Marandas & McClellan Immigration Law Offices, and Gwynne Skinner, director of the Willamette International Human and Refugee Rights Clinic.

---

Please RSVP by visiting the Mary Leonard Law Society website:

www.maryleonardlawsociety.org

For more information:

Check out Mary Leonard Law Society on our website, www.maryleonardlawsociety.org, email us at www.maryleonardlawsociety@gmail.com, or

