

Making a Great First or Fourth Impression in Court

Speaker Bios

The Honorable Magistrate Judge Patricia Sullivan was appointed to her current position in September 2005 and is now in her third four-year term. She practiced law with the Pendleton firm Corey Byler Rew for over 25 years. She is a 1978 graduate of University of Georgia School of Law and was admitted to the Georgia State Bar the same year. Among her numerous professional activities, she chaired the Oregon Joint Bench/Bar Commission on Professionalism in 1997.

The Honorable Eva J. Temple has served on the Circuit Court bench for Oregon's Sixth Judicial District since January 2011. Prior to coming on the bench she handled a wide range of civil litigation and transactional matters, most recently as a shareholder in the Hermiston firm, Anderson Hansell Temple PC. Earlier in her career, she served for over three years as a staff attorney for Intermountain Public Defender in Pendleton, handling adult indigent criminal defense and juvenile delinquency and dependency case. She is a 1996 graduate of the University of Oregon School of Law, where she served as Associate Editor of the Oregon Law Review.
